Tubac Golf Resort & Spa's Instructing Professionals

2011 Calendar

DAN KAUFFMANN — Green Valley, Arizona

Dan has more than 30 years of experience playing and teaching the game of golf. After receiving a golf scholarship from Pima College, Dan attended the San Diego Golf Academy, where he honed his teaching and playing skills under renowned instructor Dean Reinmuth.

Dan became a PGA member in 1986, and spent 10 years as Director of Instruction at Little Lake golf facility in St. Louis. Dan has taught at public, private, military and resort courses, and is currently a teaching professional at Tubac Golf Resort & Spa.

BILL BROOKS — Green Valley, Arizona

Bill is currently the Head Golf Professional at Tubac Golf Resort & Spa. Bill started his professional golf career, after twenty-five years in the Air Force, at Randolph Golf Course in Tucson, Arizona. He became a PGA Member in 2002. Bill's instructional skills and experiences have been honed over almost fifty years that included University classes in golf, numerous military instructing schools, PGA instructional classes, and thousands of golf lessons. These diversified approaches to instruction, combined with his advanced education in bio mechanical analysis and in depth study of the golf swing, provide a unique and understandable instructional approach to the golf swing regardless of the student's proficiency. Several of Bill's students have become very accomplished players in Universities and in the local golfing community. His commitment is to make your swing more effective and your golfing experience more enjoyable.

JOEL JARESS — Green Valley, Arizona

Joel is a local golf professional with more than twenty years of teaching and golf management experience. He became a full member of the PGA in 1996. Having played on several championship teams in high school and college, Joel understands not only the fine details of the golf swing, but the competitive side of the mental aspect to golf. Joel's teaching skills have been developed over thousands of golf lessons to all ages and skill levels at public, private and resort courses.
